

MOTION BY SUPERVISOR MARK RIDLEY-THOMAS

MARCH 12, 2009

On May 20, 2008, the Board of Supervisors approved a reward offer of $10,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible for the death of Hae Sook Roh. On Monday, May 12, 2008, at approximately 6:45 p.m., Hae Sook Roh was fatally shot during a robbery in the 2300 block of West Rosecrans Avenue near Van Ness Avenue in the City of Gardena. The robbers fled with an undisclosed amount of cash and were last seen running westbound on Rosecrans Avenue. The gunman was described as being in his 20s and wearing a cloth bandana over his face, a black jacket with a t-shirt underneath, and shorts. The other suspect is also about 20 and was last seen wearing a blue shirt and blue jeans.

The initial reward offer was extended on August 5, 2008 by the Board of Supervisors and expired on February 14, 2009. The lead investigator from the Los Angeles Sheriff's Department believes that the re-establishment of the reward offer would assist them to apprehend and convict the suspects in this senseless murder of Hae Sook Roh.
